LAURA ABIGAIL & JONATHAN PRICE

When Laura showed up at an Oklahoma University hockey game, she had no idea she was sitting next to her future husband. After the couple graduated and took jobs in Texas, they visited Jonathan's family on the East Coast often. During one particularly special Fourth of July holiday, the water hadn't even hit the table at Jonathan's favorite New York City eatery before he was down on bended knee. The entire restaurant erupted upon hearing Laura's reply. It was better than fireworks!

Laura and Jonathan shared their special day with friends and family members on January 22, 2010. After a lovely ceremony at SMU's Perkins Chapel, the celebration continued at The Ritz-Carlton, where guests were treated to a night of fabulous surprises, including entertainment by Emerald City.
