FIREWORKS CAN MAKE A GREAT EXIT BACKDROP. WHAT OTHER WAYS CAN FIREWORKS BE INCORPORATED INTO THE WEDDING?

We conduct a lot of displays immediately after the toasts, at a dancing break time or after the first kiss. They are also great for remembering or honoring loved ones. We had one couple who did a show with a grandparents' wedding song, and one bride who honored her late brother by having them to his favorite song.

CAN I WALK DOWN THE AISLE TO ANY SONG I WANT OR SHOULD IT BE MORE TRADITIONAL?

If you are getting married at a church or house of worship, the selection of music may be limited since most religious sites forbid secular music and require their couples to use in-house musicians. If you are not having your ceremony at a place of worship, then you may select anything secular, classical, instrumental, or recorded music for your walk down the aisle. Consider mixing traditional songs with instrumentals of pop music or classic love songs. Select things that are meaningful and have fun with it!

THE WEDDING OF
LINDSAY PIERCE & CHRIS TANOZLA

DREAM WEDDING MAKER

"Our most helpful wedding vendor was hands down our planner, Sheri Lowry, from Weddings by StarDust. I thought I was organized when it came to wedding planning, but Sheri was the cherry on top. She made us feel so relaxed and at ease during the entire process, which was not easy given we were planning from 4,000 miles away! She caught every detail and was incredibly accommodating — our wedding day wouldn't have been the same without her."
